- b) have or anticipate award of a high school diploma or GED in the 2023 calendar year; and
- c) have a parent(s) currently assigned to Joint Base (JBMDL) on active duty.
- d) Faris Family and Impact Charity Services employees/family members are ineligible.

Application Requirements:

Complete this application and attach the following:

- a) Proof of your eligibility to receive financial aid through FAFSA: apply at <http://studentaid.ed.gov.sa.fafsa>
- b) Copy of high school diploma or General Education Diploma (GED) if graduated; or copy of current transcripts
- c) Two (2) letters of recommendation from a source outside your family (ex: clergy, teacher, employer, community organization leader)

Application Deadline:

Your completed application and attachments a-c listed above must be postmarked no later than Friday, April 21, 2023. Only hard copies are accepted, no electronic transmissions. Keep a copy, including this page, for your records and mail original to: Impact Charity Services, PO Box 1692, Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054.

Receiving Your Money:

If you are selected, your college/school of choice will receive a check directly. You will be given instructions in your spring congratulations letter about how to initiate this process. A parental/legal guardian signature is required on this application declaring you understand 1) it will be your responsibility to initiate release of scholarship funds to your chosen institution; and 2) failure to initiate this release within six (6) months of award will result in forfeiture of scholarship.

About This Scholarship Program:

These awards are made possible by a generous donation from the Faris Family and are administered by Impact Charity Services, a 501(c)(3) non-profit in the State of New Jersey, dedicated to improving the future of youths and their families in the Delaware Valley. Our very best wishes to all applicants, and we look forward to hearing from you!
