

Holy Trinity United Church of Christ
The Robert Richard Rudd Scholarship Fund

Born January 28th, 1952, Robert Richard Rudd was a very talented artist and creative thinker. Throughout his life, he enjoyed visual and performing arts. He also enjoyed sewing, culinary arts and decorating. As a talented cake decorator, he did outstanding work for birthdays, weddings, anniversaries and other celebrations. Using his skills as a seamstress, his culinary artistry and his flair for decorating, Robert also worked as a wedding planner. Robert understood the importance of using his talents and abilities to help those in his family, church and his community. He served faithfully as a member of Holy Trinity United Church of Christ in Willingboro, New Jersey. While working at Boscov's in Moorestown, Robert used his creativity and fashion sense to assist in serving his customers. Robert died March 10th, 2010. Although he did not obtain a formal degree, he encouraged every young person in his life to pursue an education. Therefore, to honor his memory, the Robert Richard Rudd Scholarship Fund through Holy Trinity United Church of Christ is offering $500.00 to an eligible applicant.
