Interdisciplinary Connections:

- Incorporating piece from all genres, all ethnicities and all cultures, and comparing and contrasting those pieces with historical references
- Sound waves and science behind the acoustics and pedals, especially with dynamics
- Mathematical divisions of beat and bars

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Performance Task(s):

- Perform listening exercises to promote balance and blend within sections and within the greater ensemble
- Critique group performance
- Create warmups that focus on different tasks at hand
- Write, perform and recognize dynamics and tempo markings in simple to intermediate level pieces
- Perform scale patterns utilizing proper finger patterns in chords alone and in pieces using proper technique and hand positions
- Perform scales of varying degrees with proper finger patterns
- Complete technical exercises
- Analyze and critique peers and professionals for their performance techniques
- Aurally recognize musical elements in performance such as dynamics, tempo and mood

Other Evidence:

- Self reflection for recorded performance
- Peer reflection for recorded performance
- Critique for proper balance patterns

Stage 3: Learning Plan

Learning Opportunities/Strategies:

- Performing varying pieces of music across multiple genres that incorporate basic levels of dynamics
- Performing varying pieces of music across multiple genres that incorporate basic to intermediate labels of note reading in treble and bass clef
- Creating music for treble and bass clef for students to perform and critique
