PTHS FOOTBALL COACH RECEIVES HONOR FROM NFL'S PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

PTHS football coach Gerald Davis was selected as the Philadelphia Eagles Coach of the Week for Week 6. He is one of eight coaches being selected this year by the Eagles and will be invited to a game later in the season and honored on-field. In addition to being selected, he will receive a $1,500 equipment voucher for the PTHS football program.

The second-year head coach spent 11 years as a Pemberton Youth League football coach, serving as the program's president for six years. He joined the PTHS coaching staff as a volunteer in 2012 and became the defensive coordinator in 2019.

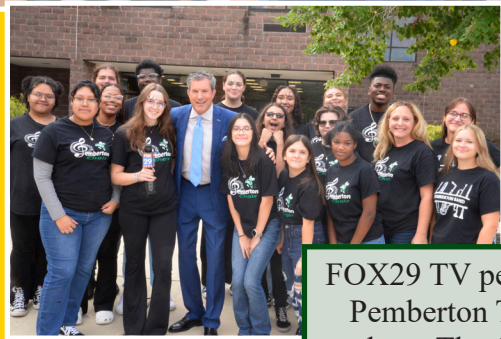

As a recipient of this award, Davis will also be a candidate for the 2024-25 Eagles High School Coach of the Year. He could also be selected as the Eagles' candidate for the 2024-25 National Don Shula High School Coach of the Year honor.

"It was extremely special to be recognized as one of eight H.S. football coaches in the area," Davis said. "For me, it is a community award. The number of people in the community that shared it and thanked me showed how proud they were."

NEW JERSEY STATE POLICE ASSEMBLIES AT DENBO-CRUGHTON

Members of the New Jersey State Police hosted two outdoor assemblies at Denbo-Crichton Elementary School.

The agency's Mounted Unit visited Denbo-Crichton on Tuesday, September 24th. Students were introduced to "Phantom" and learned about his duties as a mounted unit horse. Phantom is originally from Salem County, New Jersey and assists his handler in various high visibility policing roles. Mounted horses are often utilized by law enforcement agencies to help with crowd control at events.

outdoors to capture photos and videos of the aircraft's approach. Classes went outside by grade level to attend the two-part assembly. On one side of the rested helicopter, students took turns asking questions to be answered by two members of the Aviation Unit. On the other side of the aircraft, classes rotated and took pictures alongside the state police helicopter.

Members of the Pemberton Township Police Department also assisted with both presentations. Pemberton Pride!

DR. HOLLEY NAMED PEMBERTON TOWNSHIP HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

The Pemberton Township Board of Education recently approved the appointment of Darvis Holley, Ed.D. as principal of Pemberton Township High School. Holley's tenure began on October 1st. He has served as principal of the district's Fort Dix Elementary School for the past three years. During his tenure at Fort Dix, the school was ranked as one of the Best Elementary Schools by U.S. News and World Report. In addition, under his leadership Fort Dix Elementary School was named a Purple Star School by the New Jersey Department of Education, was recertified as a National School of Character, and received a Promising Practice award for its commitment to character education.

"I'm incredibly excited about the opportunity to serve as the new principal at Pemberton Township

Darvis Holley was approved as the principal of Pemberton Township High School and began his tenure on October 1st.

High School," Holley said. "It's both an honor and a responsibility that I take seriously, and I'm eager to begin this journey with the staff, students, and community. PTHS has a rich history and strong sense of community, and I'm looking forward to building upon that foundation."

Holley has been a respected leader in Pemberton for the past 10 years, having served as an assistant principal at Helen A. Fort and Marcus W. Newcomb Middle Schools from 2014 to 2021 before moving to Fort Dix.

"Mr. Holley truly cares about his students and has remained committed to our district for the past 10 years," Jeff Havers, superintendent of Pemberton Township Schools, said. "We are excited for his transition to our district's high school and look forward to his continued leadership."

The PTHS JROTC Raider Team traveled to Fort Knox, Kentucky for the U.S. Army National Raider Competition from October 24th through October 27th. It was the Hornets first appearance in the national competition in school history! Cadets wore the camouflage uniform and boots and participated in multiple events for points. Over 300 teams from around the country competed for the title of Raider National Champion, and while the Hornets did not place, they had a fantastic experience showcasing their skills and Pemberton Pride. Congratulations, Hornets!
